MANOEUVRE REVELS IN SOUTHERN MUD

Comes From Behind to Easily Win Bienville Handicap at Jefferson Park.

Departs to THE NEW YORK HEALD. ORLEANS, La., Dec. 8.—The rowd of the season accepted maching in a damp setting at Jefferson Park to-day. Rain that fell throughout the morning reduced the track to a sea of slop and provided Manœuvre with an appropriate footing to score his clever victory in the Bienville Hotel Handicap which topped a cart riddeled by whole-

The handicap was a six furlong event. Tody outbroke Hobey Baker at the bar-rier's rise, where Manœuvre was caught unprepared so that opposing pair were ten lengths in front before McCoy got the Riverdal stable's candidate into his stride. He gradually reduced the gap and under urging, caught Tody at the final sixteenth to win coping away by final sixteenth to win going away by a length and a half, while the Crist filly length and a haif, while the Crist filly upon on well to save the place from Hobey Baker.

It proved a disastrous day for favortes, as five fell by the wayside. Coltiettl and Murphy shared the riding honors, each with two winners. Coltilettl's aff were Lady Luxury and Our Birthlay, both running in the E. J. Salt day, both running in the E. J. Salt colors, and it was his superior horse-manship that enabled Lady Luxury to take the verdict over Elmer K. ridden he Francis, after the latter had shown the way to the final sixteenth. Our Birshday revelled in the slop and won easily dashly straddled the easiest winner of the damp lay in William Sheedy's filly, Forest Queen in the opener; she gradually increased an immediately acquired lead to eventually win by eight lengths. His other winner was On High, who outgamed Alcatraz and nine others over the mile and a sixteenth route in the third. Kilkenny seemed the apparent winner at the home turn, where he fell lame and was pulled up in deplorable condition in this event.

Brown Check retused to leave the barrier with his company in the sixth race and was piaced on the schooling list. He will not oe permitted to start to-morrow.

Parke H. Davis Reviews Great Football Plays of Year in Next Sunday's New York Herald

At the close of each season the various football teams throughout the country file with Mr. Davis the complete statistics of their games. These statistics of their games. dinary. In it the small college player who complains that he is overlooked in the election of All American teums comes into his own, for Mr. Davis parallels his exploits beside those of the famous player from the big team, and to the credit of the inconspicuous player of the small team be it said that in many Instances his performances lead.

Who scored the most points of all the players in the United States? Although the sports writers have named a number of players for this leadership, they have not mentioned the right man. Mr. Davis will tell you.

Who has kicked the longest and most goals from the field? The name of this inconspicuous player has not yet appeared in the news items of the East.

Who made the longest run on all the nation's football fields this fall?

Who threw the longest forward pass? Who made the longest run from scrimmage? Who with an intercepted pass? Who with a complete pass? Who with a caught punt? Who with a fumble and who with a blocked kick? Who scored the most touchdowns? Who the most goals after touchdown?

By actual figures who is the longest punting fullback in the United States.

the most touchdowns? Who the most goals after touchdown?

By actual figures who is the longest punting fullback in the United States?

All of these questions and a score of others will be answered in Mr. Davis's review next Sunday. What is more, the pictures of these great players will appear as illustrations. In the midst of the post season's jumble of All Eastern, All Western and All American teams, selected by guess work, refresh yourself by ascertaining who is who in Mr. Davis's review, which is based apon the figures of actual performances. It is entertaining, instructive and unique.

Steward of Jockey Club

The resignation of John Sanford as a member of the Board of Stewards of the Jockey Club was accepted with regret at a meeting of the atewards, held yesterday. Present at the meeting were day. Present at the meeting were August Belmont, F. K. Sturgle, H. K. Knapp, John E. Cowdin, F. R. Hitchcock, J. E. Widener and R. T. Wilson.

Mr. Sanford was elected a steward in February of 1913 to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late James R Keene, and he has served continuously since that time. It is not expected that the resignation of Mr. Sanford will in any manner suggest his retirement from racing, although he has curtailed his racing activities considerably.

Application to register various horses under the fine clause were approved, and temporary licenses to jockeys and traineers granted by the stewards of the Empire City meeting were confirmed.
